

Hip/Core Sequence

Shoulder Sequence

These passive stretching sequences are designed to help release tight connective tissue safely as a supplement to the active Ashtanga practice. We recommend these stretches minimally once a month to gently and slowly restore the body.